PIECE OF WORK

County Commissioners Are Try ing to Equalize Taxes.

The board of county commissioners is hard at it this week in an effort to equal-ize the tax on land values. The result ize the tax on land values. The result of this work—all changes from the assessor's books—will be published in the Palatka News, this paper having been designated by the board to do the work. From hints obtained on the outside, it is thought that there will be many changes. The work is important and the board is going about it in a careful manner.

Other business transacted by the board at its meeting Wednesday was the appropriation of $100 to the Mississippi-to-Atlantic Waterways Association. Mr.

THREE HARD WORDS.

There are three short and simple words, the hardest to pronounce in any language (and I suspect they were no easier before the confusion of tongues), but which no man or nation that cannot utter can claim to have arrived at manhood. These words are, "I was wrong." - Lowell.

Getting Into a Life Buov. The average person in danger drowning usually attempts to lift a life buoy over his head, with the result that he is immediately plunged deeper into the water. A good swimmer can do this with a sudden upward jerk, but with the non-wimmer it is almost an impossible tent. What he should do when he has seized the buoy is to place both hands, paims downward, on the buoy on the part nearest the body. pressing it downward and slightly away, when the farther part of the buoy will rise out of the water and actually fall over the head. The arms can then be put through easily, "and there you are."

FIGHT PICTURES BARRED IN SOUTH

Feared Tendency Would Be to Stir Race Prejudice.

That Palatka will join with other cities of the south in prohibiting the exhibition of the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight is generally believed.

City Attorney Strupz says that it would be a question for the city council to determine, though the mayor, did he think such exhibition would result in trouble, would undoubtedly have the power to prohibit it. prohibit it.

But there would never be any trouble in Palatka. The white people of this place are generally willing the negroes should enjoy to the full all that's coming to them in glory from the Reno affair.

They recognize that the Johnson fighting machine is almost perfect.

However, the moving picture exhibit would be debasing in its tendency and decent people of both races do not want it.

From many cities both north and south come reports that these pictures will be prohibited. Boston's mayor has pronounced against them, as so also have the authorities at Washington, Cincin-nati, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Pa., and At-

That the south will be a unit in pre-venting the exhibit is conceded. The surprising thing is the edicts that have gone out against the pictures in all parts of the north, where resultant race riots are predicted.

The moving picture company stands

The moving picture company stands to lose a big sum of money by this undoubted popular demand that the pictures be suppressed. The company paid $166,000 for the exclusive privilege of making the pictures of the fight and hoped to clear a million dollars on the deal. Of the amount paid Jeffries gets $66,000, Johnson $50,000 and the promoters of the fight $50,000.

the Poultry Business.

"A Plain American in England," by Charles T. Whitefield, is a highly amusing diatribe on the gentle art of British entertainment. It appears in the American Magazine, and in the course of some descriptions of English customs the author relates the following incident, which happened at a phensant run:

"A friend for whom I have a great admiration took me to see a pheasant run. The place looked just like a big chicken yard such as we have at home. There were hundreds of the birds feeding on scraps and grain thrown to them by the keeper. I had seen strings of these birds hanging up in the markets for sale at low prices, had bought their eggs in the swell restaurants at high prices, and I naturally supposed that this trade was conducted like any other branch of the poultry business. When you have been in England a short time you realize that you must approach the subject of trade or bustness with some delicacy, but I longed to know the modus operandl of poultry packing among the swells. I wondered if they could teach our Chicago stockyards anything. So I asked the ceeper in my broadest English: " 'How do you collect and ship these birds?

"'Yes,' I said, 'how do you kill them and get them to market?" "'We don't kill 'em. We send in beaters and shoot 'em. It's great sport. "That seemed to me a disgusting proposition-to beat a flock of tame, harmless pets to death and shoot them besides-and I remonstrate: "'Why don't you simply wring their necks with a quick twist of the wrist.

insuring a rapid and painless death, "But my friend grasped me violently by the arm and drew men abruptly away. I felt badly about it, because this good and valuable host said it would be at least twenty years before he could look that gamekeeper in the face with tranquillity."

Probably True.

A raw Irishman shipped as one of the crew on a revenue cruiser. His turn at the wheel came around, and after a somewhat eccentric session in the pliothouse he found himself the butt of no little humor below.

"Begorrah," he growled at last, "and ye needn't talk. I bet I done more steerin' in tip minutes 'n ye done in ver how! watch!" - Success Magazine.

Compliments Judge Calhoun.

The patriotic exercises under the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America held in the plaza, were of a high order. It was a splendid idea to enlist the practical aid of the boys in the exercises. The two young "military companies" proved a truly enjoyable feature and aroused great enthusiasm, not only among the children, but among the older folks.

one of the brightest gems of oratory ever heard in this city, and was well calculated to arouse the patriotic pride of all who were privileged to hear his words.—St. Augustsne Record.

MONEY COULD BE BETTER EMPLOYED

One Man in Palatka Opposes Federal Building.

It is stated upon good authority that there is one man in Palatka who is op-posed to the erection of a Federal building in this city.

That man is R. W. Thompson, mana ger of the Hart estate and rear admiral of the Oklawaha river line of tourist

Mr. Thompson is not altogether a stranger here, though Bawston is his

His reason for opposition, as given out for public consumption, is, that the same amount of money spent in improving the channel of the St. Johns river would be a greater benefit to Palatka. He may be correct, but what's the matter with our having both?

There is another reason for the oppo-sition of Mr. Thompson of Bawston.

The present quarters of the Palatka postoffice is leased by the government from the Hart estate, of which Mr. Thompson is agent. hompson is agent. Last week Mr. Thompson of Bawston

Mr. Danforth's reasoning finally pre-vailed and the petition was withdrawn.

Judge Perkins Here.

Judge James W. Perkins, of Volusia Criminal Court of Record, was a distinguished visitor in Palatka yesterday, en route home from a visit to Dean Farrah of the State University Law School at Gainesville.

Judge Perkins, whose fame rests more, perhaps, on his long service as a prosecuting attorney than as a judge, and which office he has filled less than a year, was recently nominated state senator from Volusia county in a hard-fought battle with strong competitors, and on the first of the coming year will tender his resignation as judge to Gov. Gil-

Judge Perkins is being urged by many admirers to be a candidate for president of the senate, and will probably consent, but whether elected as presiding officer of that body or not, one thing is certain, he will play an important part in the de-liberations of that body. He is a man of ideas and action, is in the prime of vig-orous manhood, and now that he is to be a factor in the politics of the state, his infuence will be potent for the general welfare. He is a native Floridian of the kind we are all proud of.

INTERLACHEN ITEMS:

The Fourth of July celebration here, although characterized by a derth of the usual ear-splitting noise usually considered essential to the day, was enjoyed by all who participated therein. The by all who participated therein. The Sunshine society managed the affair, and a brief but interesting and appropriate program was carried out. Such patriotic and stirring old songs as "Hail Colum-bia," "Star Spangled Banner," "Ameri-ca," and even "Yankee Doodle," were enthusiastically rendered under the leadership of Misses Wylie, Fraser and DeTilla assisted by the inventile choir DeTilla, assisted by the juvenile choir of the Congregational church. The Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. D. R. GOOD CITIZENS OF A GREAT COUNTRY

Was Theme of Patriotic Ad-dress by Rev. H. Dutill at Methodist Church.

A patriotic service was held at St. ames Methodist church last Sunday james Methodist church last Sunday night. The pastor had arranged for special music and a special address, the address to be given by a layman if one could be secured. Failing to get the layman, Mr. Dutill delivered the address imself rather than give up his special service.

Mr. Dutill's theme was "Good Citizens of a Great Country," and he said in part:

"At the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the 134th anniversary of which we celebrate tomorrow, no prophet was far-sighted enough to see the present greatness of this nation.

"This nation is God's latest gift to the world, and its development seems like a development of the Divine plan for the welfare of the race. Notice some of the welfare of the race. Notice some of the marks of our material greatness. In our marks of our material greatness. In our saving banks the common people have on deposit $$,713,405,709. Our 230,000 miles of railway, connecting the various sections of our far-reaching domain, have an annual revenue of $900,000,000. But our true wealth is in our 93,000,000 of people. True wealth is in markhood.

of people. True wealth is in manhood.
"Whoever seeks the welfare of this "Whoever seeks the welfare of this great population, is the true friend of his country—the PATRIOT. The real significance of the Fourth of July is found in the perpetuation of the declaration of the right of all to 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.' Our schools, fraternal societies, and our churches show themselves the patriotic organizations, they claim to be by their persistent contention for these rights. But there are enemies as well as friends to think about. Whoever or whatever seeks or tends to Whoever or whatever seeks or tends to the degredation of manhood, is the enemy of our land. Here are some of the things that threaten to degrade us: Disregard for the sanctity of the home; Disregard for the sanctity of the home; disregard for the sanctity of human life; the fierce passion for money—the love of money is still the root of evil.

"Judge Hall of the U. S. District Court of New York, in a recent speech, said, 'An habitual, incorrigible enemy of society should be selected.

ciety should be solemnly adjudged to be put to death.' He was speaking of un-punished crime, of mob violence and the like. I name one incorrigible enemy of society, the source of gross crimes as well as the arch-criminal, for the speedy execution of which all good citizens should strive. If I should call together the young manhood of our country, strong, glorious young manhood, and tell them an enemy threatens the invasion of our fair land, they would offer themselves as one man to go to any place and suffer unto the death for this same and suffer unto the death for this same land; and yet an enemy threatens, and yearly destroys 100,000 citizens. If I should assemble the young womanhood of our land, fair and pure and beautiful young womanhood, and tell them an young womanhood, and tell them an enemy threatens to enter their homes and drag them to ruin, they would be moved to make any sacrifice to light back such a foe; and yet such a foe is in our land doing that same dreadful work, and thousands annually go from purity to shame. If I could get the ear of 30,-000,000 church members of my country, and like some prophet of old before Jerusalem tell of the threatened invasion of our land, we would leave our pulpits and our pews and hasten to strengthen the hands of those who fight; and yet an invasion of all that is holy is on—the enemy is here. If I could meet in their halls the 12,000,000 of fraternity men and point to a threatened overthrow of our liberties by an incorrigible foe to all they stand for, they would be reminded of their obligations, and join the great army in defense of our land. And yet that enemy more than threatens-it is entrenched in our midst and under the protection of our flag. It is the legalized saloon, and against this foe all our fra-ternal orders and all our churches and all our best citizens have pronounced.

"I have stood in the midst of our saloon cursed cities and seen the smoke of the torment of the damned in ruined homes arise seemingly forever. My ears have heard the cry from worse than widowed women and orphaned children. And I have sworn eternal war against this incorrigible enemy to good citizen-
